QUESTIONNAIRE – Vojtech Martinat

The following are all the questions that the study participants will answer, with the available categories if applicable.

How old are you?

What sex do you identify with?

What are the top 3 social media platforms you use?

Has this changed in the past 3 years? If yes, what platforms did you use to prefer?

Approximately how many hours per day you spend using social media?

At this point, the participant is shown at least one virtual mock user interface of a social media platform. They are then asked to perform specific tasks. This could include messaging someone, finding a specific topic to read about etc.
